

untitled

i in tomorrow, its future i saw no hard ship

just to know, to travel the vessels and grow into the smooth brown reflection

go through emotions and resolve the image in mirror

my body preceeded me in loose shoes
long,
slender,
tall on the boys

and what i capture
under my curious fingers
and what i make shiver
is delicious for a new appetite

first day in the new body

i

future

and be tomorrow.
